Jerry Reinsdorf

Chairman

Jerry Reinsdorf assumed the position of Chairman of the Chicago Bulls on March 13, 1985, when he led the group that purchased controlling interest in the franchise ... at that time, Jerry already had several years of experience in professional sports management as Chairman of the Chicago White Sox Major League Baseball franchise ... since assuming ownership of the Sox franchise in 1981, he has been active in the affairs of baseball, serving on the Executive Council and Ownership, Long Range Planning, Restructuring, Expansion, Equal Opportunity, Strategic Planning, Legislative and Player Relations Committees of Major League Baseball ... during his tenure as Chairman of the Chicago Bulls, the team has won six World Championships in 1991, 1992, 1993, 1996, 1997 and 1998 ... Jerry also spearheaded two major new facilities for the Bulls ... the United Center, home of Chicago Bulls basketball games and Chicago Blackhawks hockey games, opened in time for the 1994-95 season ... the arena provides a state-of-the-art facility for Bulls fans ... Bulls players also have a state-of-the-art facility in their training center, the Berto Center, which opened during the summer of 1992 ... in addition to his sports interests, Jerry is an attorney, Certified Public Accountant, specialist in real estate securities, registered mortgage underwriter and a certified review appraiser ... he was a founder of a diversified real estate investment, management and development company, which was subsequently sold to a subsidiary of American Express ... in 1988, he and Robert A. Judelson formed Bojer Financial, Ltd., a land investment company ... born in Brooklyn on Feb. 26, 1936, Jerry graduated from George Washington University in Washington, D.C. and went on to receive his law degree from Northwestern University, as well as a Doctor of Humane Letters from Illinois College ... since moving to Chicago in 1957, he has been active in many civic and charitable organizations ... his contributions to the community have been recognized by organizations such as Interfaith Organizing Project, American Academy of Achievement, Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, Chicago Baseball Cancer Charities, Chicago Park District, Operation P.U.S.H., National Ethnic Coalition of Organizations, Chicago Police Department, Boys & Girls Club of Chicago and Lincoln Academy of Illinois ... he is a member of the Board of Trustees of Northwestern University ... Jerry and his wife, Martyl, have four children, David, Susan, Michael, Jonathon, and six grandchildren.

Robert A. Judelson

Alternate NBA Governor

Robert A. Judelson is a partner of Bojer Financial Ltd., a real estate investment company ... Judelson served as First Vice Chairman and one of the founders of one of the country's largest real estate investment firms, which was a subsidiary of American Express ... the firm acted as a fiduciary in various limited partnerships and trusts, with aggregate investments in real estate of approximately $6 billion ... such partnerships have over four million individual and institutional investors ... he was the founder of JMB Realty in Chicago, which he left in 1973 to become one of the founders of The Balcro Company ... he is a graduate of Northwestern University ... he is a Director of the Chicago White Sox Major League Baseball Team and Chicago Bulls ... he is a member of the advisory board of the Moran Eye Institute at the University of Utah, a member of the Board of Trustees of the Utah Symphony, a former trustee of Eaglebrook School in Deerfield, Massachusetts, and St. Andrew's Preparatory School in Boca Raton, Florida ... Bob and his wife, Joan, have two children, Julie, 31, and Henry, 28.

Sanford Takiff

Alternate NBA Governor

Sanford Takiff is Treasurer, Ron of Japan Steakhouses of Northbrook and Chicago ... he is a graduate of the University of Illinois and Northwestern University School of Law ... he is a Certified Public Accountant ... he is a member of the Florida, Illinois and Washington, D.C. Bars ... former Assistant State's Attorney of Cook County ... he is a member of Board of Directors of the John Howard Society, Anti-Defamation League, Jewish Community Centers, Chicago White Sox, Provident-St. Mel School ... he is a member of the University of Illinois College of Commerce Alumni Association's Board of Directors ... he is a founder of the Delano Student Incentive Fund Corp., which sends graduates of the Delano Elementary School class of 1991 from high school to college ... Sandy and his wife, Bobette, have three daughters, Jill, Lizzy Scheinfeld (husband, Josh) and Sherri Zirlin (husband, Todd) and granddaughter, Lily Zirlin.

Jerry Krause

Vice President/Basketball Operations

The architect of six Bulls World Championship teams, Jerry Krause starts his 14th season as the Bulls Vice President of Basketball Operations and his 32nd year in the NBA with a great record behind him and many reasons to believe more success will follow in the years to come ... the 59-year-old native Chicagoan whom team owner, Jerry Reinsdorf called, "The hardest working sports executive I've ever been around" when he hired him on March 26, 1985 ... has been responsible for the acquisition of every Bulls' player other than Michael Jordan and all of the coaching, scouting and administrative staff that combined to become only the third team in NBA history to win three consecutive championships ... voted NBA Executive of the Year in 1987-88 and 1995-96 ... drafted Scottie Pippen, Horace Grant, B.J. Armstrong, Will Perdue, Toni Kukoc, signed John Paxson, Trent Tucker, Scott Williams, Steve Kerr, Bill Wennington, Jud Buechler, Randy Brown, Robert Parish and Brian Williams as free agents and traded for Bill Cartwright, Luc

Longley and Dennis Rodman ... hired Phil Jackson and assistant coaches Tex Winter, Jimmy Rodgers, Frank Hamblen and Bill Cartwright, Assistant Vice President of Basketball Operations Jim Stack, strength and conditioning coach Al Vermeil, and scouts Clarence Gaines, Jr. and Ivica Dukan ... as a scout for Baltimore, Chicago, Phoenix and the Los Angeles Lakers was responsible for drafting two Hall of Fame players - Earl Monroe and Wes Unseld, three Rookies of the Year in Monroe, Unseld and Alvan Adams ... also drafted other NBA stars such as Jerry Sloan, Norm Van Lier, Clifford Ray, Brad Davis, Michael Cooper and James Edwards ... only man in sports history to be an executive in both Major League Baseball and basketball ... had a 16-year career as scout and special assignment scout with the major league teams in Cleveland, Oakland, Seattle and Chicago (White Sox) ... played major roles in moves that brought Ozzie Guillen, Tom Seaver, Greg Luzinski, Ed Farmer, Julio Cruz, Greg Walker, Daryl Boston and Ron Karkovice to the White Sox ... alumnus of Chicago's Taft High School ... a member of the prestigious Bradley University Athletic Hall of Fame ... was a baseball catcher and worked for basketball coaching staff while at Bradley ... Jerry is married to the former Thelma Schiff and is stepfather to Stacy and David.

Irwin Mandel

Vice President/Financial and Legal

Entering his 27th season, Irwin Mandel has the longest tenure of anyone with the Bulls ... the senior financial executive in the NBA, and one of the most experienced in any management position in the League ... responsible for the club's financial, legal and corporate areas ... most important duties include player contracts, financial reports, and applying and interpreting the NBA's salary cap, free agency and other collective bargaining rules ... one of the select few NBA executives chosen to serve on the committee to advise the League office regarding the recent salary cap rules changes ... NBA Commissioner David Stern said recently, "nobody in the NBA understands the intricacies of the salary cap better than Irwin Mandel" ... also considered one of the NBA's most knowledgeable and creative experts on player contracts and the collective bargaining rules ... helped develop NBA team financial statements and assisted the NBA Labor Relations Committee ... oversaw the instituting of a detailed budget plan for the office and negotiated the club's switch to charter travel ... recently served as a consultant to two of the other major sports leagues regarding the benefits and workings of the NBA's salary cap and free agency systems ... received both his undergraduate degree in accounting and his law degree from Northwestern University ... he is a Certified Public Accountant and member of the Illinois Bar ... worked in the tax department of Arthur Andersen & Co. for four years prior to joining the Bulls ... formerly served two terms as President of the Northwestern University Club of Chicago and was a recipient of the Northwestern Alumni Service Award ... active in Little City and other charitable programs ... speaks regularly to business groups, law schools and college students regarding legal and financial management careers in professional sports ... avid tennis player ... a native Chicagoan, Irwin and his wife, Sheri, with two sons, Michael and Robby.

Steve Schanwald

Vice President/Marketing and Broadcasting

Entering his 12th season, Steve Schanwald oversees areas that include Bulls ticket sales, advertising sales, game entertainment, promotions, media services, community services, publications, broadcasting and advertising ... in his first season (1987) the Bulls began its current 542 game streak of sellouts ... that year also saw dramatic increases in revenues derived from publications, promotions, signs, radio and season tickets, beginning a pattern of revenue enhancement which continues to this day ... places heavy emphasis on customer service ... Bulls staff members meet personally with each season ticket holder on an annual basis ... created Shoot-the-Bull 3 on 3 Classic ... every home game features a Bulls premium giveaway item ... upgraded game entertainment package ... improved the quality of existing publications and added others ... has developed a 750,000 name database of Bulls current and potential ticket purchasers for future sales activities ... established first-ever Bulls season ticket waiting list, now up to 23,000 names ... established first-ever Bulls radio and television networks ... put all Bulls games on Spanish radio ... established the Bulls Community Services Department, among the first in the NBA ... recipient of a local Emmy award as well as numerous awards for advertising excellence ... serves as Senior Vice President/Marketing for the United Center, responsible for suite, sign, college basketball and Club seat activities ... played key role in negotiating stadium naming rights agreement with United Airlines ... instrumental in bringing first-ever Big Ten Conference Basketball Tournament and the Great Eight College Basketball Classic to Chicago ... developed and serves as President of CharitaBulls, which has raised $7,000,000 for a variety of worthy causes ... has served as a member of the NBA's Marketing Advisory Board ... sits on the Board of the James Jordan Boys & Girls Club ... has spoken internationally on sports marketing and been a guest lecturer at the University of Chicago Business School, Kellogg Graduate School of Business, the Notre Dame Business School, and the American Marketing Association among others ... native of Bethpage, N.Y. ... 1977 University of Maryland graduate ... served as Director of Sports Marketing at the U.S. Air Force Academy (1978) ... served as Director of Promotions for the "We Are Family" Pittsburgh Pirates (1979-80) where he received his first championship ring ... spent six years (1981-86) as Assistant Vice President/Marketing for the Chicago White Sox ... in 1983 and 1986 the White Sox received Major League Baseball's highest award for overall marketing excellence ... Steve resides in Burr Ridge, Ill.

Stu Bookman

1997-98 Season

Michael Jordan scored his 27,000th career point.

The Bulls took over the NBA's longest active sellout streak with their 493rd straight sellout, as the Sacramento Kings' streak was snapped at 497 the previous night.

Michael Jordan named the NBA Player of the Week for games played from Nov. 17 through Nov. 23

Michael Jordan passed Elvin Hayes (27,313) for fourth place on NBA's scoring list.

Michael Jordan passed Moses Malone (27,409) for third place on the NBA's scoring list

The Bulls hosted their 500th consecutive sellout. The streak began on Nov. 20, 1987 with a 94-92 win over Atlanta at Chicago Stadium.

Michael Jordan named the NBA Player of the Week for games played from Dec. 15 through Dec. 21.

Phil Jackson reached his 500th career victory, making him the fastest coach in NBA history to reach 500 wins. Jackson broke Pat Riley's mark (684 games) in 682 games.

Michael Jordan scored in double figures for the 788th consecutive game of his career, breaking Kareem Abdul-Jabbar's NBA record of 787. Jordan's streak began on March 25, 1986. The last time Jordan did not score in double-figures was on March 22, 1986 (8 points) at Cleveland.

Michael Jordan named the NBA Player of the Month for December.

Dennis Rodman entered the NBA's all-time top 20 list of rebounders, surpassing Jack Sikma (10,816) for 20th place.

Dennis Rodman passed Karl Malone for 19th place on the NBA's all-time rebounding list.

Michael Jordan scored his 28,000th career point with his first two points of the game, making him the third player in NBA history to reach the plateau (Kareem Abdul-Jabbar — 38,387 and Wilt Chamberlain — 31,419). Jordan has also recorded scoring milestones at Philadelphia for his 5,000th (3/11/87), 10,000th (1/25/89), 15,000th (1/9/91) and 24,000th (3/18/96) career points.

Michael Jordan passed John Havlicek with 14 field goals to raise his career total to 10,524. He entered the game four field goals shy of passing Havlicek (10,513) for fifth place on the NBA's all-time list for field goals made. Kareem Abdul-Jabbar is first with 15,837 career field goals.

January 25 vs. Utah

The Bulls' 17-game home win streak was snapped by the Jazz (101-94). Prior to that, the Bulls' only other loss at the United Center was on Nov. 12 vs. Washington (90-83); the loss marked the first time the Bulls lost to a Western conference team at home since Jordan returned from retirement in March of 1995.

1997-98 Season Summary

The Time World Champions

October (0-1)/November (9-6)

The Bulls commenced the 1997-98 campaign continuing their quest for a sixth NBA Championship in their season opener at Boston. The Bulls fell to the Celtics (92-85) at the FleetCenter on Oct. 31. The opener was the first of 35 games that Scottie Pippen would be sidelined after recovering from surgery to his left foot. The Bulls began the month with their home opener at the United Center on Nov. 1 vs. the Philadelphia 76ers. After a ring ceremony commemorating their fifth NBA title, the 1997 NBA Championship banner was raised to the rafters before the 490th consecutive sellout crowd. The Bulls went on to defeat the Sixers (94-74). On Nov. 3 the Bulls prevailed over the Spurs (87-83) at the United Center in a double-overtime game that featured a buzzer-beating three-pointer by Michael Jordan that forced overtime. The Bulls defeated Orlando on Nov. 5 (94-81) for their third straight win. Chicago would drop three of the next four games to fall to 4-4. After losing their first home game of the season on Nov. 12 vs. Washington (90-83), the Bulls captured back-to-back home wins vs. Charlotte (105-92) on Nov. 14 and Cleveland (79-70) on Nov. 15 before embarking on a seven-game road trip. On the first stop, the Bulls were handed their fifth loss of the season as they fell to Phoenix (89-85) at America West Arena on Nov. 20. The next night Jordan scored a season-high 49 points to lead Chicago to an 111-102 double-overtime victory over the L.A. Clippers at the L.A. Sports Arena. After beating Sacramento (103-88) on Nov. 23, the Bulls fell to Seattle (91-90) on Nov. 25 and Indiana (94-83) on Nov. 28.

December (11-3)

Boston was the last stop on the Bulls' seven-game road trip, as Chicago avenged their season-opening loss to the Celtics (97-87) at the FleetCenter on Dec. 3. Returning home after three weeks, Chicago defeated Milwaukee (84-62) at the United Center on Dec. 5. The 62 points set a team record for fewest points by an opponent. While leading the Bulls to a 100-83 victory over New York at the UC on Dec. 9, Jordan passed Moses Malone (27,409 career points) for third place on the NBA's all-time scoring list. Chicago continued to struggle on the road, losing at Orlando (106-98) on Dec. 10 and at Charlotte (79-77) on Dec. 12. The Bulls rebounded with a win over Toronto (97-70) at the UC on Dec. 13 that initiated an eight-game win streak. The Bulls hosted their 500th consecutive sellout at the UC on Dec. 15 as they defeated Phoenix (111-104). On Dec. 17, Jordan (36 points) and Luc Longley (then-career-high 22 points) powered Chicago past the L.A. Lakers (104-83) at the UC. Phil Jackson recorded his 500th career coaching victory as the Bulls went on to defeat the L.A. Clippers (94-89) at the UC on Dec. 23. He became the fastest coach in NBA history to reach the milestone, passing Pat Riley's mark (684) in 682 games. On Christmas Day, the Bulls defeated Miami (90-80) at the UC. In the next game on Dec. 27, Dennis Rodman set a personal record as a Bull with 29 rebounds to lift the Bulls over Atlanta (97-90) at the UC. The team extended their win streak to eight after defeating Dallas (111-105) on Dec. 29. The Bulls' streak was snapped the next night, as the Bulls fell to Minnesota (99-95) for the first time in club history, at the Target Center. Despite the loss, Jordan set the NBA record for consecutive games with double-figure scoring (788), breaking Kareem Abdul-Jabbar's record of 787.

January (13-3)

The Bulls rang in 1998 with a win over Milwaukee (114-110) at the UC on Jan. 2. Jordan scored 44 points and Luc Longley added a career-high 24 points to lift Chicago past the Bucks. The following night at Detroit, the Bulls notched their first back-to-back set of wins with a victory over the Pistons on Jan. 3 (105-96). The Bulls suffered one of their worst losses of the season when they fell to Miami (99-72) at Miami Arena on Jan. 7. It was the Bulls' largest margin of defeat of the season. The Bulls traveled to New York where Jordan scored 44 points to lead the Bulls over the Knicks (90-89) on Jan. 9. The following night, Chicago was bolstered by the return of Scottie Pippen, who was activated after missing 35 games on the injured list while recovering from foot surgery. Pippen scored 14 points in his season debut and Jordan scored 32 points to lead the Bulls past Golden State (87-82) at the UC on Jan. 10. The Bulls continued to thrive at home, stretching their win streak at the UC to 17 games with a win over Charlotte (110-79) on Jan. 21. Chicago stole a win from New Jersey in overtime (100-98) at Continental Airlines Arena on Jan. 23. The Bulls' 17-home game win streak was snapped by Utah (101-94) on Jan. 25. After the defeat, Chicago embarked on its second extended trip to the West Coast and won three straight games, including at Vancouver on Jan. 27 (103-85), on Jan. 29 at Portland (100-87) and on Jan. 30 at Golden State (87-80) to rise above the .500 mark on the road for the first time (12-11).

February (10-3)

For the first time this season, the Bulls began a month with a loss, falling to the L.A. Lakers (112-87) at the Great Western Forum on Feb. 1. In the second game of that back-to-back series, Chicago regained its winning road record with a victory over Denver (111-72) at McNichols Arena. Scott Burrell scored a season-high 24 points off the bench in the fourth quarter to spark the Bulls to a late surge. Despite 40 points from Jordan, the Bulls lost to Utah for the second time this season, as Chicago fell to the Jazz (101-93) at the Delta Center on Feb. 4. Chicago finished the West Coast swing with a 4-2 mark and returned home for the All-Star break with a 34-15 record. Jordan represented the Bulls at the NBA All-Star Game at Madison Square Garden on Feb. 9 and scored a game-high 23 points to lead the Eastern Conference to a 135-114 victory while earning the MVP for the third time in his career. Chicago started the second half of the season with a win over Toronto (93-86) at the UC on Feb. 10, beginning an eight-game win streak. Victories included Charlotte, Atlanta, Detroit, Indiana, Toronto, Washington and Cleveland. The Bulls' eight-game win streak was snapped by the Portland Trail Blazers (106-101) at the UC on Feb. 25. Chicago closed out February with a win over Sacramento (109-94) at the UC on Feb. 28.

March (13-1)

Chicago kicked off March with a win over Denver (118-90) at the UC on March 3. Following a four day break, the team returned to action on March 8 and defeated New York (102-89) at Madison Square Garden thanks to a 42-point performance by Jordan. After beating Miami (106-91) at the UC on March 10, Chicago salvaged a split in its Texas two-step trip, falling to Dallas (104-97) in OT at Reunion Arena on March 12 and defeating San Antonio (96-86) at the Alamodome on March 14. The Bulls marched through the rest of the month, equaling their season-high eight-game win streak with a win over Atlanta (89-74) at the Georgia Dome before an NBA-record crowd of 62,046. Chicago finished March riding a 10-game winning streak after posting wins over Milwaukee (104-87) at the Bradley Center on March 29 and Detroit (106-101 OT) at the UC on March 31. Chicago compiled a league-best 13-1 record for the month.

April (6-3)

Chicago extended its season-high win streak to 13 games with victories over Minnesota (107-93) at the UC on April 3, Houston (109-94) at the Compaq Center on April 5 and Washington (103-85) at the UC on April 7. The league-best streak ended with a loss to the Cavaliers (91-85) at Gund Arena on April 9. The Bulls rebounded two days later with a win over Orlando (87-78) at the UC, as Chicago improved to 36-3 at home and became the first team this season to reach 60 victories. The Bulls had to settle with a 2-2 split in the season series with Indiana after the Bulls fell to the Pacers (114-105) at the UC on April 13. Two nights later, Chicago fell to Detroit (87-79) at the Palace of Auburn Hills, marking the first time since Dec. 10 and Dec. 12 that the club lost two straight games. The Bulls wrapped up their road schedule on April 17 defeating the Philadelphia 76ers (87-80) at the Core States Center. The Bulls finished the 1997-98 season with a 25-16 road record. Chicago concluded the regular season with a win over the New York Knicks (111-109) at the UC on April 18. Jordan wrapped up his 10th consecutive scoring title and Dennis Rodman captured his seventh consecutive rebounding title. The Bulls finished the season with an overall 62-20 record (home: 37-4, road: 25-16).

DRAFT:

First round, Maurice Lucas (Marquette) and Cliff Pondexter (Long Beach State); second round, Leon Benbow (Jacksonville).

RECORD:

47-35 (first divisional title).

REGULAR SEASON:

Van Lier and Love held out in attempts to renegotiate existing contracts ... eventually rejoined club missing 11 and 20 games, respectively ... Mickey Johnson joined club ... picked up Nate Thurmond from Golden State for Clifford Ray, a number one draft pick and substantial amount of cash ... Thurmond blocked team-record 12 shots in his incredible Chicago debut as Bulls beat Atlanta 120-115 in season opener (10/18/74) ... average attendance 10,074 ... led NBA defensively, yielding an average of 95.0 points per game ... Bulls won team-record 12 straight home games (1/24 through 2/21).

PLAYOFFS:

Defeated Kansas City in six games (4-2) ... defeated by eventual NBA Champion Golden State in Western Conference Finals 4-3.

HONORS:

Sloan named to All-Defensive First Team ... Love led team in scoring (22.1) ... Thurmond led team in rebounding (11.3).

DRAFT:

First round, Corie Blount (Cincinnati); second round, Anthony Reed (Tulane).

RECORD:

55-27 (second place).

REGULAR SEASON:

Michael Jordan retired prior to opening day on Oct. 6, 1993 ... fifth straight 50-plus win season ... 31-10 home record marked seventh straight season of 30-plus Stadium wins ... 24-17 road record ranked as second-best in the Eastern Conference, third-best in the NBA ... 24 road wins marked the fourth straight year of +.500 road records ... Bulls made NBA history when the team had two players complete four-point plays (Scottie Pippen, Pete Myers) in one game (3/8/94 vs. Atlanta).

PLAYOFFS:

Swept Cleveland 3-0 in the first round ... eliminated 4-3 by New York in Eastern Conference Semifinals.

HONORS:

For first time in team history, the Bulls had three players on the NBA All-Star Team (Scottie Pippen, B.J. Armstrong and Horace Grant) ... B.J. Armstrong and Steve Kerr participated in the AT&T Long Distance Shootout on NBA All-Star Weekend ... Pippen became second Bull ever to be named All-Star MVP (Michael Jordan was All-Star MVP in 1988) ... Toni Kukoc played in first-ever All-Star Rookie game ... Bulls' home sellout streak reached 340 games (includes regular season and playoffs — 283 and 57, respectively).

DRAFT:

First round, Travis Knight (Connecticut).

RECORD:

69-13 (first place).

REGULAR SEASON:

Finished season at 69-13, tying the 1971-72 L.A. Lakers for the second-best regular season record in NBA history ... set club record for most consecutive games won at the start of the season (12-0) ... Bulls reached the 100-win milestone at the United Center on March 22 with a 103-88 victory over Detroit ... surpassed the 1966-68 Philadelphia 76ers and the 1984-86 Boston Celtics for most wins in back-to-back seasons with a record of 131-19 ... Jordan set a club record for most games started in a season opener (11) ... Jordan scored his 25,000th career point on Nov. 30 at San Antonio, reaching the plateau faster than any player in NBA history except Wilt Chamberlain ... on April 6 at Orlando, Jordan scored his 26,711th point, passing Oscar Robertson for fifth place on the NBA's all-time scoring list ... Robert Parish played his NBA-record 21st season ... Dennis Rodman grabbed his 10,000th career rebound vs. Washington on Jan. 14 to become the 24th player in league history to reach the milestone ... Jordan, Pippen and Parish named to NBA's 50 greatest all-time players list ... Phil Jackson named as one of the league's all-time 10 greatest coaches ... Pippen (35), Toni Kukoc (31) and Jordan (30) became the first Bulls to score 30+ points in the same game on December 17 vs. L.A. Lakers.

PLAYOFFS:

Won franchise's second consecutive and fifth NBA title in seven years by defeating Utah 4-2 in the NBA Finals ... swept Washington 3-0 in the first round ... defeated Atlanta 4-1 in Eastern Conference Semifinals ... defeated Miami 4-1 in Eastern Conference Finals.

HONORS:

Michael Jordan captured his ninth scoring title with a 29.6 average ... Jordan named to NBA All-Star Team for the 11th time and chosen as 1997 NBA Finals MVP ... Dennis Rodman captured sixth consecutive rebounding title with a 16.1 average ... Scottie Pippen named a starter to the 1997 NBA All-Star Game ... Jordan and Pippen selected to 1996-97 All-NBA First Team ... Jordan and Pippen selected to 1996-97 NBA All-Defensive Team ... Jordan became the first player in NBA history to record a triple-double in an NBA All-Star Game (14 points, 11 rebounds and 11 assists) ... Steve Kerr won the AT&T Shootout during NBA All-Star Weekend ... Bulls' home sellout streak reached 489 games (includes regular season and playoffs - 406 and 83, respectively).

Victories
come in many sizes.

Sure, there are some larger-than-life individuals on the Chicago Bulls.
But our team also includes our non-profit foundation, CharitaBulls, and the thousands of Chicagoland children it helps.

We built the James Jordan Boys and Girls Club to give neighborhood kids a place to play and learn. And it's only one of hundreds of organizations we help through donations, appearances and programs.

Because we're not just the Bulls. We're the Chicago Bulls. And proud of it.

CharitaBulls®
Leading the league in assists.

The NBA, its teams and its players demonstrate their concern for important social issues by supporting causes that help people achieve an improved quality of life, placing a special emphasis on serving the needs and recognizing the accomplishments of young people.

NBA TeamUp

NBA Community Relations

The NBA's community outreach initiatives include:

The NBA TeamUp Program

NBA TeamUp is a league-wide youth initiative that encourages volunteerism among students in middle and high schools across the United States and Canada. Now in its third year, the program has engaged more than 79,000 young people in community service projects, and has recognized and rewarded more than 40,000 outstanding youth volunteers at events hosted by the NBA and its 29 teams. The league and its players also draw awareness to the importance of volunteerism through a public service campaign and television specials that reach millions of viewers.

The NBA and Reading Is Fundamental

Since 1995, the NBA has partnered with RIF, the leading nonprofit youth literacy organization in the United States, to promote the fun and fundamentals of reading. Successful programs resulting from this partnership include the league-wide "NBA Reading Month," which encourages reading through incentive programs, read alouds and book distributions; and a series of public service announcements featuring NBA players.

The NBA/WNBA Sportsmanship Initiative

Implemented in conjunction with the National Federation of State High Schools Associations and the Canadian School Sports Federation, this program fosters on-court sportsmanship in amateur and professional basketball competition. The initiative includes the NBA and WNBA.

Sportsmanship Awards

A certificate program that rewards high school athletes and coaches who demonstrate sportsmanship; and a public service campaign featuring NBA and WNBA players.

The NBA also supports the efforts of the National Committee to Prevent Child Abuse, the Martin Luther King, Jr. Holiday, Black History Month and the Thurgood Marshall Scholarship Fund.

Making a basket. Making a point. Making a difference.

Chicago is a wonderful place for the Bulls to play. But we want to help make this strong city an even better and safer place for thousands of children to play. The Chicago Bulls take great pride in playing an active part in our community. We derive exceptional support, strength and motivation from our devoted fans and the city of Chicago. It is both our responsibility, and our pleasure, to give back to our hometown.

Our commitment to Chicago is to be actively involved in programs that improve the quality of life in the metropolitan area. All of us at the Chicago Bulls are proud of the leadership role that we have taken to help make Chicago a better place to learn, work and live. Through financial support, in-kind services, numerous community programs and the personal involvement of our players, coaches and the entire organization, we are reaching out to Chicagoans every day.

We are committed to Chicago, and through our dedication to community service, we are doing our best to make a difference.

CharitaBulls

Winning is like a dream. Giving back makes it real.

Since 1987, we have been reaching out to thousands of Chicagoans through our nonprofit organization, CharitaBulls. Created as a vehicle for the Bulls to say "thanks" and give something back to our fans and the community, this organization raises funds for a variety of ongoing, worthy causes. Our primary objective: to create positive educational and recreational opportunities for children and young people because the future, for all of us, is in their hands.

Bulls Scholars/Chicago Public Schools

In November of 1998, CharitaBulls announced a $3.5 million donation over the next three years to the Chicago Public Schools to establish the Bulls Scholars is a Program in all 25 public middle schools. Bulls Scholars is a competitive, after-school instructional program designed to provide Chicago's 6th, 7th, and 8th graders with the skills they need to succeed academically and personally. Students receive added instruction in Algebra and English from two middle school teachers and a certified high school teacher. CharitaBulls' donation funds teaching personnel, instructional texts, materials and five computers per middle school. Through the Bulls Scholars initiative, the Bulls hope to address the critical issue of preparing middle school students for high school.

James Jordan Boys & Girls Club and Family Life Center

CharitaBulls donated $4.5 million in 1994 to build this 40,000 sq. ft., two-story, youth and family development center named in memory of James Jordan, Michael Jordan's father. Opened in 1996, the Club features a computer center, art studio, science lab, gym, daycare center, dance and game rooms, classrooms and more. The Club, located just two blocks from the United Center, on Chicago's Near West Side, is a unit of the highly successful Boys & Girls Clubs of Chicago.

Chicago Park District Programs

In the early 90's, CharitaBulls donated $1 million over five years to repair and refurbish 140 damaged city basketball courts through the Chicago Park District/CharitaBulls Basketball Court Renovation Program. In 1995, we donated $375,000 to form the Chicago Bulls/Chicago Park District Men's Late-Nite Basketball League, which will be in operation until at least 1999. The League operates at 11 sites throughout Chicago parks and attracts more than 800 players, ages 17-26. This year CharitaBulls announced a $110,000 grant to form the Chicago Bulls/Chicago Park District Women's Late-Nite Basketball League which tipped-off in June of '98.

Illinois Special Olympics

CharitaBulls annually donates $30,000 to help fund eight district and two state basketball tournaments for Illinois Special Olympics. As co-sponsor of the tournaments, we are proud to help enrich the lives of more than 2,800 special athletes in Illinois.

Chicago Public Library System

In 1994, we joined with the Chicago Public Library System to support the Mabel Manning Branch Library, located just two blocks from the United Center. CharitaBulls "adopted" the newly-built library and contributed $50,000 to furnish its "Computer Court," a tech center with IBM and Macintosh personal computers, printers and software, for use by library patrons. In 1998, we pledged an additional $50,000 to upgrade the Computer Court's hardware and software and hire a part-time computer tutor.

City Year

In 1997, CharitaBulls formed a partnership with City Year Chicago, a national youth service organization. This group gathers young people, ages 17-21, from diverse backgrounds for a challenging year of full-time community service, leadership development and civic engagement. The Bulls' charity donated $55,000 to City Year's Young Heroes Program which invites 80 middle school students from different schools in the West and South Side communities to participate in 16 fun- and lesson-filled Saturdays. The emphasis is on direct community service and formal leadership development training, so that the young people will learn the value of teamwork, tolerance and commitment. CharitaBulls will donate an additional $120,000 over the next three years to this program.

CharitaBulls Fundraising

Gets it Done.

Our foundation is primarily supported through funds raised at the following successful annual events:

Tip-Off Luncheon

Nearly 1,400 fans attend this preseason banquet to see the team and get an insider's look at the upcoming year.

FestaBulls

More than 500 fans join the Bulls' players, coaches, announcers and staff for dinner and both live and silent auctions of sports memorabilia. We annually raise nearly $270,000.

Shoot-the-Bull 3 on 3 Classic

Our citywide tournament draws thousands of basketball players and spectators each year. Held in Chicago's Grant Park, this men's and women's competition features dunk and shooting contests, celebrity competitions and kids' clinics with Bulls' players. Proceeds go to both CharitaBulls and Illinois Special Olympics.

50/50 Raffle

Introduced during the 1996-97 season, the raffle raised $270,000 for CharitaBulls in 1998. Raffle tickets are sold at each home game. In the fourth quarter, a lucky winner takes home 50% of the net earnings from that evening's ticket sales. The other 50% benefits CharitaBulls.

Corporate Sponsor Program and more

We also raise funds through in-arena auctions, personal scoreboard messages ($100 donation) and in-game gift packages ($500), private donations, United Center tours, a memorabilia auction and the CharitaBulls Corporate Sponsor Program, whereby sponsors contribute money based on the number of Bulls' victories, dunks, free throws, blocked shots, points, steals, rebounds and assists, made by the team.

School Programs

Getting an education is a winning situation.

We cannot say it enough: getting kids to stay in school is one of the most important challenges we face today. The Chicago Bulls have made it a priority to create and fund programs to encourage and reward students, especially at-risk youth who may feel pressured to drop out. We all benefit, as a city and as a nation, if our children are motivated to stay in and succeed in school.

Stay in School

The NBA's nationally acclaimed Stay in School program was created in 1989 to address the critical issue of high school students dropping out. A joint effort with the NBA and the National Basketball Players Association, the program includes several national and local elements designed to deliver the Stay in School message to all students, but particularly to those at the middle school level. The Bulls have an active Stay in School program that encourages Chicagoland students to achieve perfect attendance, among other things, and aims to reduce the dropout rate. As incentives, students can earn certificates of achievement, tickets to Bulls games, Bulls' player visits and the chance to attend the Bulls' Annual Stay in School Jam.

Scholarships

Each season, the Bulls and CharitaBulls offer four $2,000 scholarships to area high school seniors who plan to attend college. Scholarships are awarded on the basis of academic achievement, extra curricular activities and the contents of an essay. Additionally, we annually provide, through the United Center Joint Venture, $20,000 in scholarships to Malcolm X College students.

Adopt-A-School

We know that positive reinforcement, recognition and role models are all important tools to motivate students. With that in mind, we annually adopt a Chicago Public School. We help encourage students to set and achieve educational goals. Incentives such as Bulls' game tickets, autographed memorabilia, arena tours and Bulls' souvenirs spur them on to meet goals such as good attendance, grade improvement and positive attitude.

Art Contest

In an effort to encourage creativity and an interest in the arts, we annually host an art contest. Students in grades one through six in Lake, Cook and DuPage counties are invited to draw or paint any scene depicting Bulls' basketball, using either the Bulls' logo or the words "Chicago Bulls." Winning entries appear in the Bulls' magazine, game program and yearbook.

Newspaper in Education Programs

We host annual programs, in conjunction with both the Chicago Sun-Times ("Hit the Hoops") and the Chicago Tribune ("Believe It/Achieve It"), to promote newspaper reading. Students, in grades four through eight, also learn various school subjects from math and geography skills to goal-setting all through following the Bulls in the sports pages, from October through May.

TeamUp

During the 1996-97 season, the NBA launched the NBA TeamUp program, a new community outreach initiative designed to maintain the League's long-standing commitment to youth and education. TeamUp promotes the importance of community service and recognizes young people who demonstrate a commitment to improving the quality of life in their communities. On a local level, the Bulls are working with West Side schools to implement TeamUp efforts, rewarding students who create and implement successful community service initiatives.

Food Drives

"Help the Bulls Help the Homeless" echoes through the concourses of the United Center each December as we, in conjunction with the Mayor's Office of Special Events and the Chicago Anti-Hunger Federation, host an annual food drive. Nearly two tons of food are collected each holiday season and distributed to Chicago area food kitchens and shelters. We also hold a "Non-Holiday" Food Drive each February with the Greater Chicago Food Depository because hunger is a year-round issue.

A.C.E.S (Athletes Committed to Educating Students)

In its second year in Chicago, A.C.E.S. is an after-school tutoring/mentoring program for inner-city children who need additional support to reach their full academic potential. We are involved with A.C.E.S. through a joint venture with Chicago's professional sports teams. The program begins with a new fourth grade class every year and follows each class through high school. Students attend weekly tutoring sessions and bi-monthly classroom sessions led by an athlete activity leader (from a local professional or college team) or a program coordinator. The program tipped-off in Chicago last year with four Chicago Public Schools.

Holiday Kids Party

Only with the magic of the holidays could you see a seven-foot elf. The Bulls become Santa's helpers as we annually invite 200 underprivileged children to visit the team at the Bulls' practice facility, the Berto Center, for a very special holiday celebration. Lunch and souvenirs are provided as well as the opportunity to meet and spend time with the Bulls. Guests have included children from Marillac House, St. Joseph's Carondelet Child Care Center, St. Barnabas Urban Center, Larkin Center and Methodist Youth Services. In addition, during the holiday season the Bulls host several visits by players at local hospitals and children's homes.

Holiday Events

Celebrating that comes straight from the heart.

One of the best times to give is the holiday season. When we focus our efforts on those who are truly needy, we can all better understand the true spirit of the season. We are proud of our community work but at no time are we prouder than during the holidays.

Basketball Games and Clinics

Offering something fun to see, something cool to do.

We have found we can engage kids, provide strong role models, teach the value of hard work and good health (and entertain in the process) by doing what we do best. Playing basketball.

Chicago Bulls Community Services

Charity Corporate Ticket Section Program

Compliments of the Chicago Bulls organization and nine corporate sponsors, more than 250 tickets are offered each game to local nonprofit groups so that underprivileged children and adults alike can experience the excitement of attending a Bulls game.

Bulls/Gatorade Summer Basketball Clinics

Each summer, we team up with Gatorade to reach thousands of Chicago's young people with a series of ten free basketball clinics. Two Bulls' players and/or coaches conduct each session and teach the fundamentals of the game. An integral part of each clinic is a message from the players stressing the importance of a positive lifestyle.

Chicago Bulls NBA 2ball

Chicago Bulls NBA 2ball is an exciting youth basketball skills program which focuses on teamwork and the development of core basketball skills for boys and girls ages 9-17. This skills competition is sponsored by each NBA team in its own market and is conducted at a grassroots level at local park districts and youth organizations. 2ball is played on half-court, marked with specific shooting locations that award different points based upon difficulty. The one-minute competition requires two players to accumulate points by alternately shooting from the different locations. Approximately 7,500 youngsters throughout Illinois participated in the Bulls NBA 2ball program during 1998.

Auction/Raffle Donations

Throughout the year, we contribute Bulls' memorabilia to charity organizations, community fundraisers and school functions for use in auctions, raffles/door prizes and school incentive prizes. Hundreds of thousands of dollars are raised for local charities as a result. During the 1997-1998 season, $550,000 was raised through in-kind donations of autographed memorabilia alone. But this figure does not include the funds raised for schools and local charities, through thousands of daily in-kind donations of tickets and promotional items.

United Center Community Economic Development Fund

Being a good neighbor is important to the Bulls and we support many programs in the Near West Side community that surrounds the United Center. One of the most ambitious is the United Center Community Economic Development Fund which was created in early 1995 to stimulate new business and create jobs. The United Center Joint Venture has set aside a $1 million fund for loans and grants to finance projects that will have a direct impact on improving the quality of life in the immediate neighborhood. In addition, in April 1996, the United Center Joint Venture announced a $1.6 million commitment to Malcolm X College in support of its academic and athletic programs.

The Wheelchair Bulls devote their time to helping others realize that wheelchair-restricted people can and do lead active, productive lives. They participate in numerous charity games, perform at Bulls' games and compete against other wheelchair teams on a national and international level. Three years ago, the Wheelchair Bulls created a Junior Wheelchair Bulls team.

Wish-Granting Foundations

There are few things as exciting or rewarding as seeing a child meet one of his or her heroes. Last year Team Mates raised $60,000 and donated funds to Sister House, Children's Memorial Art Therapy Program, West Side Future, Chicago Abused Women Coalition and several others. In addition to local efforts, the Team Mates also support the NBA's national initiative, NBA Wives Save Lives, to encourage breast cancer awareness. As part of this program, the Team Mates work with Rush-Presbyterian-St. Luke's Medical Center to help sponsor their annual Jazzercise event to support breast cancer research.

Bob Love

Former Bulls' player Bob Love, currently the Bulls' Director of Community Relations, is a popular motivational speaker. He is available free-of-charge to deliver his inspirational message about overcoming a speech handicap, to schools and social service agencies. Love makes nearly 400 appearances every year at schools, charity events, clinics, nonprofit groups and youth programs.

Fan Services

*Meeting and Greeting
our Greatest Supporters.*

We welcome and appreciate the tremendous support we receive from our fans. In return, we make every effort to offer our fans the opportunity to get further involved with the team, staff, cheerleaders and mascots.

Appearances:

Players, Benny the Bull, Da Bull, LuvaBulls and IncrediBulls

When schedules permit, our players, coaches and management staff make public appearances for charity benefits, hospitals, autograph sessions, speaking engagements and other events. Front office representatives are also available to speak at career sessions and school programs.

Chicago Bulls' Community Services

Benny the Bull, Da Bull, the LuvaBulls and the IncrediBulls are frequently available for personal appearances. They are often seen around town, attending community parades, walk-a-thons, school assemblies, hospital visits, private parties, company events, golf outings, fundraising benefits and more.

General Information

Chicago Bulls fans may send a self-addressed, stamped envelope (legal size) to the Chicago Bulls Community Services Department and receive a merchandise order form to purchase photos, a pocket schedule and a Blockbuster Video Fan Club application. Fans may also rent Bulls' highlight videotapes (VHS format), free-of-charge, dating back to the 1985-86 season.

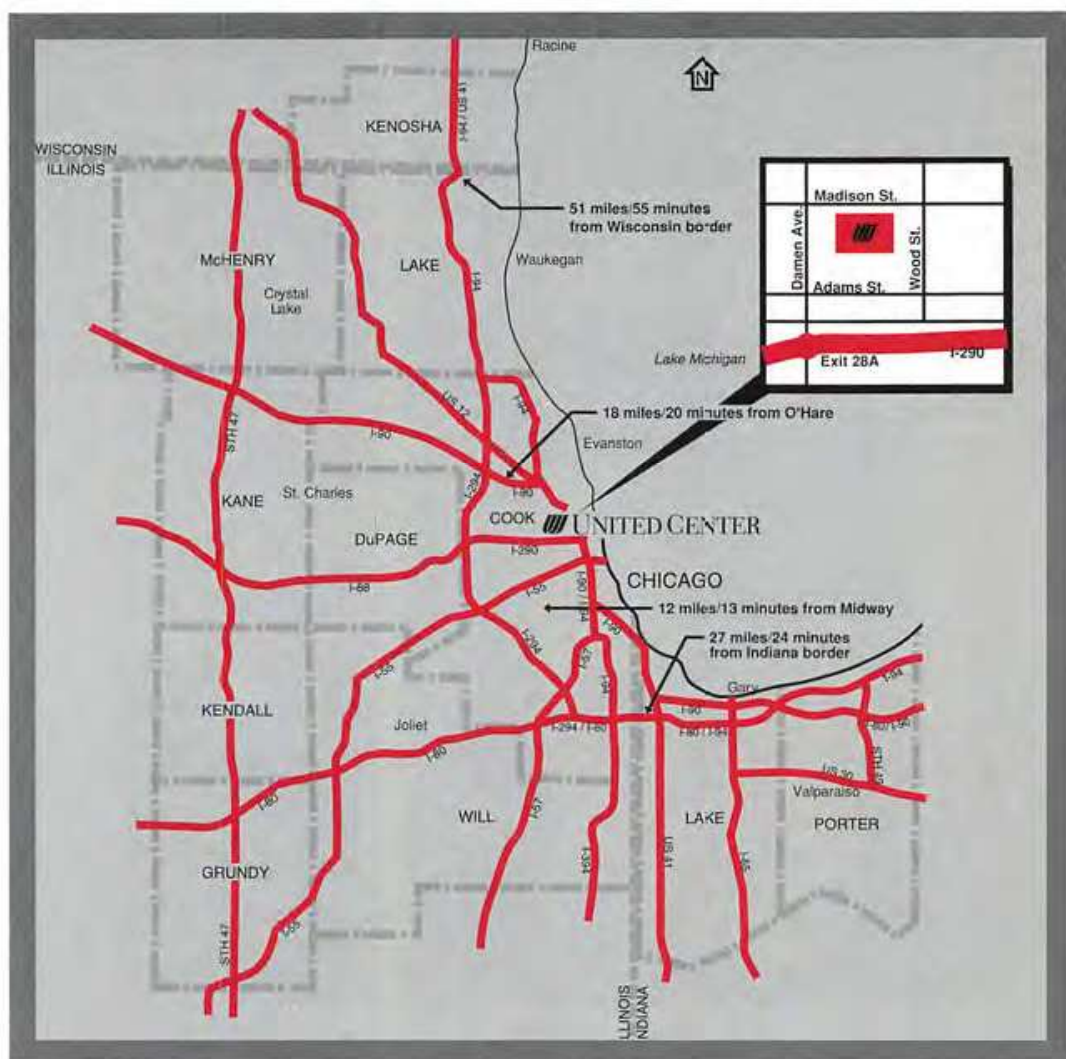

Please note that any and all services provided by the Bulls' Community Services Department are subject to availability and require at least eight weeks advance written notice.

We welcome and appreciate your support.

United Center Building Information

Completed in 1994, the United Center cost $175 million and is 960,000 square feet in size. 3,500 tons of steel were used in the building - enough to build 28 life-sized replicas of the Statue of Liberty. 41,000 cubic yards of concrete were used in the building - enough to equal a five-foot wide sidewalk from the United Center to the Berto Center in Deerfield, Illinois. The scoreboard is as tall as a two-story building (20 feet), weighs nearly as much as 26 cars, and displays 175,000 different lights. The first "public" event was the World Wrestling Federation SummerSlam, which was held on August 29, 1994. The building has 1,850 doors, 6,500 parking spaces, eight escalators, nine elevators and 50 public restrooms. The United Center has hosted over 700 events and 11,000,000 guests in just over four years.

As the Chicago Bulls enter their 33rd season in the league and fifth year in the United Center, the team appreciates the coverage and support from the media. We look forward to assisting you again this season. In an effort to provide a professional work environment, the Bulls have established the following guidelines for the season:

CREDENTIALS:

We will honor all reasonable requests for credentials from recognized newspapers, magazines, radio and television outlets. The only season passes that will be honored at the United Center are Bulls season credentials and NBA season credentials. Each of those credentials will admit the bearer to the United Center, the upstairs press box, press row, press work room and both locker rooms. However, MEDIA MEMBERS HOLDING SEASON PASSES SHOULD NOTIFY THE BULLS OFFICE IF PLANNING TO COVER A GAME IN ORDER TO RESERVE SEATING. Please make seating requests by 5 p.m. the day prior to the game. Individual single game press and photo credentials can be secured for accredited media members by calling the Bulls Media Services office no later than 5 p.m. the day before a game (5 p.m. Friday for a weekend game). Single passes can be picked up at Gate 3 1/2 on the northeast corner of the United Center.

Credentials must be visibly worn in the United Center to facilitate proper access to designated areas. In all cases, season and single game passes are non-transferable. Any unauthorized use will subject the bearer to ejection from the United Center and the forfeiture of the credential.

PRESS WORK ROOM:

The press work room is located on the service level in the northwest corner of the United Center. A meal will be served in this area prior to every Bulls game. Working media with valid credentials will be allowed into the press work room. The work area is equipped with electrical outlets.

SERVICES:

A pre-game meal will be served in the press work room. Prior to the game, the media will also be provided with game notes and programs. All statistical services including play-by-play, quarter statistics, halftime and final box scores, and postgame quotes will be distributed at press row and in the upstairs press box. Fax service is provided before, during or after the game by Tom Wiscarz.

LOCKER ROOM:

In accordance with NBA policy, the Bulls' and visitor's locker rooms will be open to the media up to 45 minutes before the game and 10 minutes after the end of the game. Only working media with a valid credential will be admitted to the locker rooms. The Bulls' locker room is located on the north end of the service level, while the visitor's locker room is located adjacent to the press work room.

PHOTOGRAPHERS:

Season passes will be issued to accredited photographers from large circulation Chicagoland daily newspapers. Photographers from other newspapers or magazines wishing to work specific games must request single-game passes. Freelance photographers needing credentials must submit a letter with a specific assignment from a publication.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS:

Please be sure to list THREE choices for radio and television postgame interviews. This will assure a guest in case the first choice is unavailable.

AUTOGRAPHS/PERSONAL CAMERAS:

No autographs of players and coaches are allowed. No personal cameras are allowed.
